

ArtFellows recognizes local artist

The diversity of creative expression is a hallmark of the ArtFellows program at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Each of the nearly 100 local artists whose work is featured in the program is selected through a rigorous review process. The review process is based on the quality of the work and the artist's ability to contribute to the program's mission of promoting the creative arts in the community.

It is a privilege to recognize and promote the creative efforts of local artists. A recent selection includes the following artists:
